HANK NAUGHTON REJOINS CDA AS PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, DC — Today, Hank Naughton, returns to be President of Centrist Democrats of America. For the last several months, Hank served as a Massachusetts District Court associate justice, succeeding Judge Margaret Guzman who was made a federal judge after her confirmation by the U.S. Senate.

“We’re pleased that Hank is returning to CDA,” said CDA Board Member and former U.S. Congressman Ronnie Shows. “Naughton served honorably and filled an important role in his home state of Massachusetts. We welcome his return to the private sector. In addition to his service in the U.S. Army and as a state legislator, his time as a judge adds to his legacy of being a dedicated public servant.”

About Centrist Democrats of America:

CDA is a group dedicated to the principle that Democrats are most effective when they lead from the political center. CDA promotes respectful dialogue, sensible laws, fiscal responsibility, consumer protections and regulations that appeal to the broadest portion of the American people. CDA advocates for common sense public policies that advance the interests of the nation and put the wellbeing of the American people ahead of politics, ideologies and party affiliation.
